

NEGROES LEARN TO FLY

AT

WEST VIRGINIA STATE COLLEGE

CIVILIAN PILOT TRAINING PROGRAM
1941-42

SUMMER SESSION—JUNE 15 to SEPTEMBER 15, 1941

Applicants are urged to apply now and begin training in aeronautics with government aid.

Facilities include: Staff of licensed experts—Airport adjoining college campus—meteorological and radio beam stations—seaplane base.

THREE HOURS COLLEGE CREDIT ALLOWED

Government controlled course includes 72 hours ground school in theory and 35 to 45 hours flight instruction.

Seaplanes, tuition, textbooks, and equipment provided free.
Living expenses on campus $5.00 per week.

Requirements—U. S. citizenship; male; age limits 19 to 25 inclusive; parental consent if under 21; must pass physical examination for commercial Civilian Pilot Training student certificates. Preference given to college students and graduates or persons who have completed two years of college training.

*For Information
Wire or Write
Division of Trade and
Technical Education
F. J. Lacy, Acting Director
West Virginia
State College
Institute, West Virginia*

