DINING ROOM, SULLIVAN HALL

WEST VIRGINIA STATE COLLEGE

INSTITUTE, WEST VIRGINIA

GREETINGS:

It is my pleasure to welcome you to the Eighth Annual West Virginia State College Sports Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony.

We are proud to have an outstanding class of inductees chosen with the assistance of Alumni Chapters and Hall of Famers. The level of involvement, while time consuming, has improved the screening process. As we honor these distinguished graduates, it is inevitable that we recall the pioneering spirit and motivation they received both in their secondary and collegiate training.

In addition to this annual event, there is a yearly agenda with emphasis upon (1) Fund raising for athletic programs; (2) Supporting programs of the National and Local Alumni Chapters; (3) Recruiting Student-athletes; (4) Conducting educational campaigns against drug abuse.

Engagement in athletic activity gives an opportunity for self-development, team spirit and cooperation. To be effective, athletes must excel athletically and academically.

We extend best wishes for the continuance of the spirit of our college under the leadership of President Hazo Carter.

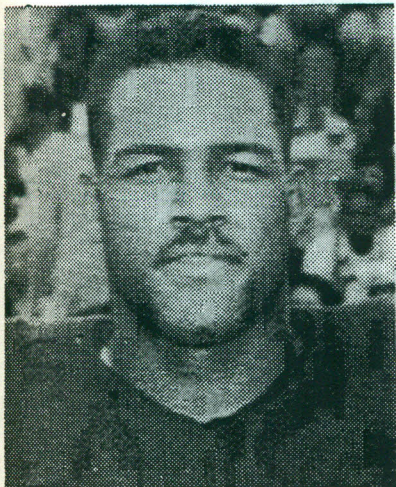

Sincerely,

Madison Broadnax
President

RUPERT G. CURRY
Class of 1953

Rupert G. Curry was born July 6, 1930 in St. Louis, Missouri. He attended John Marshall Elementary School graduating from Sumner High School in 1948. In high school, Rupert was a member of the football and track teams. As a football player he lettered three years, was named to the All-State football team in 1946 and 1947, and, in 1947, was the first black to be selected to the St. Louis All-City football team. He was state champion and the Missouri record holder, all four years, as a shot put and discus thrower.

He enrolled at West Virginia State College in 1949 where he was a member of the baseball and football teams.

In baseball he was a catcher with a .444 batting average. During a game with Central State University all of the Yellow Jacket pitchers had developed sore arms and Coach Cardwell asked Rupert to pitch. Not only did he pitch, he hit two doubles, two home runs, and won the game by a large margin.

A guard in football, Rupert was selected All-C.I.A.A. in 1951 and 1952, and All-American in 1952. He also kicked extra points, kick-offs, and at one point, he was called upon to throw passes from his pulling guard position. In his first attempt at a play designed by Coach Cardwell named the "Curry Special," he threw a 70 yard pass for a touchdown. The play required Rupert to pull out of the line behind Willie "Suitcase" Smith. Smith would fake the run, turn and lateral to Curry who would throw a forward pass to Paul Nelson, behind the defenders, for a touchdown.

He graduated from WVSC with a B.S. degree in education in 1953.

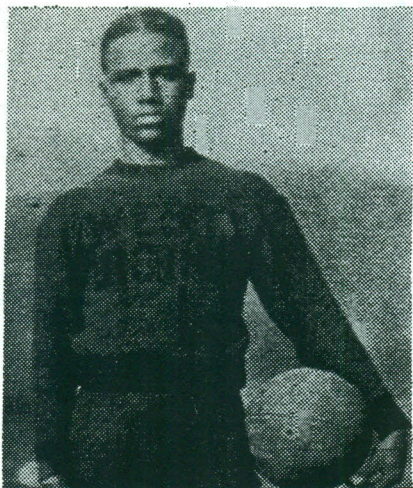

After college Rupert served two years in the U.S. Army as an artillery officer. From 1955 until 1965 he taught in the Maryland Public School system. In 1965 he began working for the IBM Corporation where he is Manager, Employee/Management Development. While serving as IBM's senior community relations representative he convinced IBM to make a contribution of $10,000 to a Washington, DC group called "The Workshop for Careers in the Arts." From this beginning, Vincent Reed, while serving as superintendent of schools in Washington, created the Duke Ellington School for the Arts. From this small start the television program FAME was developed.

Rupert also coached recreational football in Rockville, Maryland, During the thirteen years he coached his teams have won 10 championships, six of them consecutively, and he was named Coach of the Year.

He was elected the first black to the Rockville City Council and was the election's top vote getter. He was appointed, by the Governor of Maryland, to the Board of Trustees of St. Mary's College. Rupert is a member of the N.A.A.C.P., the Jerusalem United Methodist Church, president of the Patuxent Rod and Gun Club, chairman of the board of St. Mary's College, a life member of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, and president of Curry Associates.

Rupert and his wife, Irene, have three children, Cheryl, Rupert G. II, and Robert.

HUBERT L. JONES Class of 1939

Hubert Ledyard "Hooks" Jones was born September 18, 1916, in Denver, Colorado to Ledyard C. and Ruth Jones.

He attended Whitten Elementary, Cole Junior High, and graduated from Denver's Manual High School in 1932. During his notable high school career he participated in basketball and football, being selected to the All-City team as an end.

"Hooks" enrolled at West Virginia State College in the fall of 1935. While his football career was ended by a serious injury, his basketball career was not affected. He played center for the basketball team and was team captain his junior and senior years. Coach Fred Clement often referred to "Hooks" as one who would always show responsibility for whatever strategies and tactics that were gainful for the team. In 1939 the Yellow Jackets won the basketball championship.

"Hooks" lettered in basketball for four years and was president of the "W" Club in 1938 and 1939.

After graduation, in 1939, with a B.S. degree in education, he earned a master of science degree in education from the University of Denver. Following graduate school he married the former Jane Jackson. They had one son, Philip, and two daughters, Dianne and Toni.

"Hooks" was called to the Army Air Corps at Tuskegee, Alabama. He was commissioned a second lieutenant and was later sent to Korea as a pilot during the Korean War.

After the war, he returned to the States and was assigned to Tuskegee Institute as commander of the ROTC program. He was promoted to colonel four years later and assumed the position as Director of Allotments and Retired Pay at the Air Force Accounting and Finance Center.

He received the following honors and awards during his military career: the bronze star; United Nations service medal; World War II Victory medal, Republic of Korea Presidential unit citation; National Defense Service medal, Air Force Longevity service award, and the Air Force commendation award. In 1977 the American Legion Post #87 was founded and named the Hubert L. Jones Post 87.

His civilian life was similarly balanced with honors. He was a member of the Urban League and the Y.M.C.A. in Denver. He also was an official in the People's Presbyterian Church U.S.A. and a member of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity.

He lived a full and fruitful life until his death on August 24, 1975.

JOSEPH C. PETERS
Class of 1949

Joseph Cromwell Peters was born April 25, 1925 in Holden, West Virginia. He attended Logan County public schools graduating from Aracoma High School in 1943. After high school Joe entered the U.S. Army where he played football and baseball for the Army team in North Carolina, Wyoming, Colorado, and California. His North Carolina team played against North Carolina State, Wake forest, and Duke University. One of Joe's teammates was Norman Standee, fullback for the Chicago Bears.

In 1946 Joe entered West Virginia State College lettering in football and baseball. He was a center on the Yellow Jackets football team and was known as a tenacious baseball player with a strong throwing arm, a good hitter, excellent defensive player, and exceptionally fast.

He received a B.S. degree in business administration from West Virginia State in 1949. Upon completion of his college baseball career, Joe was offered a contract to play professionally with the Cleveland Indians.

In 1950 he received a masters degree in business administration from the University of Wisconsin.

Joe began to officiate football, basketball and baseball on the high school and collegiate level while attending college. He was the only official to attain the superior rating and maintain that rating for 18 consecutive years in all three sports.

In 1953 he began a distinguished career in West Virginia state government. Joe was the first and only black to become budget analyst for the West Virginia Budget Office. He was appointed to the position of State Commissioner of Finance and Administration. This was a highlight of his career and another first for blacks in West Virginia.

In 1969 he was appointed Vice President for Business Affairs at Marshall University, a position he held for 11 years.

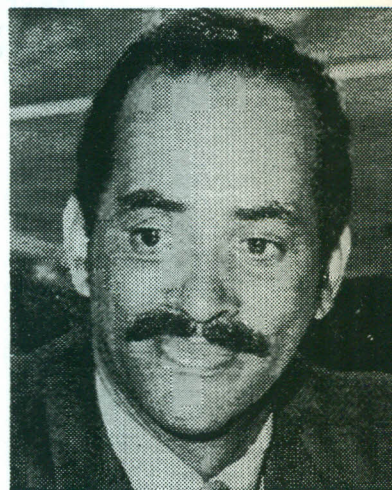

Joe retired as Division Director in the State Tax Department. He is a member of the Optimist Club, N.A.A.C.P., University Business Officers, Life Member of the W.V.S.C. Alumni Association and Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity.

He was selected as the Alumnus of the Year for West Virginia State in 1975.

His wife, Jean Freeman Peters, class of 1949, was the 1986 Alumnus of the Year.

Jean and Joe have three sons, Karl, Joseph, and Kelvin.
