A MESSAGE FROM PRESIDENT JENKINS

With great appreciation for the enduring legacy of the “W” Club, I welcome you to Homecoming 2016 at West Virginia State University. I am eager to meet each of you. Upon joining the State family, I learned of the persistent and outstanding support—of talent, treasure and time—offered by you, members of the “W” Club. Your loyal engagement is impressive and cannot be understated.

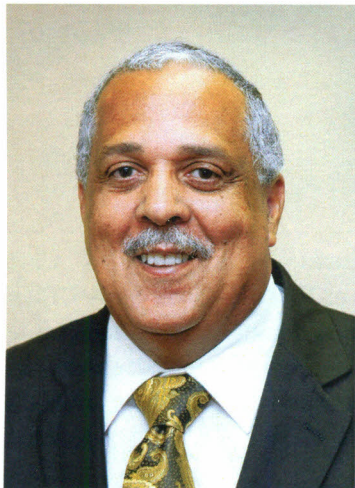

Through your unwavering commitment to State, our student-athletes are provided possibilities they would not otherwise be presented. The “W” Club affords countless opportunities to assist our Yellow Jackets as they strive to succeed in the classroom and on the field of competition. As you well know, every student-athlete needs a vibrant and strong support system. What the “W” Club offers each Yellow Jacket is extraordinary. The benefits bestowed to the West Virginia State University Athletic Department from the “W” Club ranges from scholarship and resources, to a robust and faithful community of fans for each and every sport. The difference the “W” Club has made, and continues to make, for our student-athletes’ State experience is astounding and appreciated beyond measure.

It is with the humblest gratitude that I ask you to persist in your quest to invest in today’s Yellow Jackets and those of generations yet to come. I look forward to working with each of you as we, together, continue to increase our commitment to athletics, and transform the game day experience for all West Virginia State University fans. Welcome home and...Go STATE!

Sincerely,

Anthony L. Jenkins, Ph.D.
President

WELCOME FROM THE NATIONAL "W" CLUB ASSOCIATION, INC. PRESIDENT

Dear Friends:

It is my pleasure to welcome you to the 37th Annual WVSU National "W" Club Sports Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony. This year's inductees continue the tradition of recognizing some of our most outstanding athletes. We will be forever indebted to former President Hazo W. Carter, Jr. for designating the Canty House as the official headquarters for the "W" Club in 2008.

Since the inception of the "W" Club, our collective efforts have resulted in assistance being provided to many student-athletes and programs totaling approximately $2,000,000 to date. Our success would not be possible without the help of our "W" Club members, alumni, faculty, staff, friends and others, who work tirelessly to support students and the West Virginia State University National "W" Club.

Sincerely,

William "Billy" Lipscomb
President

A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE WEST VIRGINIA STATE UNIVERSITY NATIONAL "W" CLUB

On a Sunday morning in the fall of 1975, the day after West Virginia State's Homecoming, a group of West Virginia State College alumni met in a Charleston hotel. The agenda was to brainstorm how to raise funds for athletics, as well as restore athletics to the status of previous years. The open discussion was chaired by Attorney William Lonesome, an alumnus of the school and a distinguished leader.

After several hours of discussion, it was decided that a National "W" Club would be formed to raise funds for athletic programs.

A year later, in 1976, a meeting was held the night before the Homecoming game to formally establish a new National "W" Club.

The first officers of the National "W" Club, elected at the 1976 meeting, were: Dr. Frank E. Enty, president; Rupert G. Curry, vice president; Herbert B. Thompson, treasurer; and Herbert H. Henderson, attorney/secretary.

Attorney Herbert Henderson was assigned the responsibility of acquiring corporate status for the organization. The hard, long, pro-bono legal work of Mr. Henderson gained corporate status for the National "W" Club in 1978. The incorporators were Dr. Frank E. Enty, Rupert Curry, Herbert B. Thompson, William L. Lonesome and Herbert Henderson.

Washington, D.C., was selected as the home base for the National "W" Club. The "W" Club has two chapters, the Institute Chapter and the Shenandoah Chapter, which is located in Martinsburg, W.Va. Both chapters are instrumental in the success of the National "W" Club.

Herbert Thompson wrote the first by-laws for the National "W" Club. In 1979, at a "W" Club Homecoming meeting, Mr. Glover Smiley proposed the establishment of an Athletic Hall of Fame. It was voted on and passed by the membership. The first Hall of Famers were inducted in 1980. They were Chester A. Burris, Mark H. Cardwell, Samuel A. Gamble, Vasco D. Hale, Adolph P. Hamblin, Louis R. W. Johnson, Earl Lloyd, Floyd Meadows, Roderick L. Price and Marvin H. Richardson.

Past presidents of the National "W" Club are Dr. Frank Enty, Rupert Curry, Vandy Miller, Madison Broadnax, Henry R. Bellinger and Cornelious "Papa" Jones. William Lipscomb was elected president in 2008.

The WVSU Sports Hall of Fame, located in the Canty House on campus, was dedicated to Mark H. Cardwell, Sr., on Oct. 13, 1990. The facility showcases academic and athletic triumphs of West Virginia State University athletes. A special note of thanks to the late President Dr. Hazo W. Carter, Jr., for officially designating the Canty House as headquarters for the WVSU National "W" Club.

FRANKLIN E. BEACH

Class of 1964

HONORARY INDUCTEE

---

Frank Beach is the son of Cecil and Nannie Beach of St. Albans, W.Va. He had five brothers and four sisters. Beach entered West Virginia State College's High School in 1954 and was the school's first and only white student graduating in 1957. While in high school he was known for his athletic ability in basketball and was the first white athlete to play in the State Negro High School Basketball Tournament at West Virginia State's gymnasium. Upon his high school graduation, Beach entered Bluefield State College and then transferred to WVSU where he played three years of basketball, baseball and boxing.

Beach played in the WVIAC as well as being the first white student to play in the CIAA basketball conference. In 1958, he played on the Bluefield State College team that finished third in the tournament, the first year of integrated tournament play. In 1962, he played on the WVSU's baseball team that was runner-up in the WVIAC Conference tournament. He finished with a 3-0 pitching record and an ERA of 1.68.

After college, Beach coached football and track at Southwestern High School in Ohio and was a school teacher for 13 years in various schools between Ohio and West Virginia. He trained amateur and professional fighters in Ohio and West Virginia for 45 years, producing many national Golden Glove champions. Hundreds of young men boxed under his leadership. He coached the W.Va. College All Stars basketball teams for 20 years in the AAU tournaments in the West Virginia, Ohio and Kentucky areas.

Beach is an executive board member of the W.Va. All Black Schools Sports and Academic Hall of Fame and was inducted in the first group in 2008. He is currently a co-author with Dr. Phil Carter and Mr. Larry Peters (deceased) of the documentary "Afro American Athletes in Appalachia," which traces the history of West Virginia athleticism scheduled to be released soon.

Frank Beach resides with his wife, Leary Rose in Institute, W.Va. and is the proud father of seven children and several grandchildren. His love for sports continues to be the highlight of his life as he has shared his love through his gifts, time, and talent for the WVSU National "W"-Club for over 35 years.

GEORGE CRUMMEL

Class of 1976

Track & Field

Four Year Letterman 1971-1974

Four times WVIAC All-Conference Team

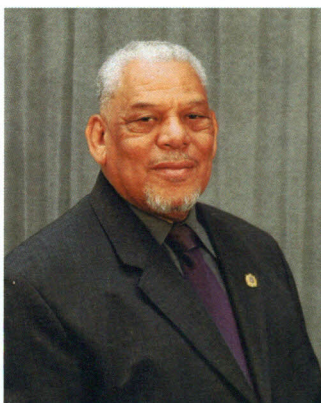

Two times WVIAC Meet Outstanding Athlete

400 Meter Hurdle Champion 1971-1974

Penn Relays 2nd Place 400 Hurdles 1971

NAIA National Participant 1971 & 1974

Team Co-Captain 1973 & 1974

George Crummel, the eldest of five children, was born and educated in Harrisburg, Pa. He attended William Penn High School and earned varsity letters for three years in cross country, wrestling and track and field. Crummel was the league champion during his senior year and state qualifier, and in his junior year finished second place in the state meet 4 x 880 relay. In 1970, Crummel was selected outstanding cross country runner by the Old Timers Club. Crummel arrived at WVSU in January 1971 with the encouragement and assistance from alumni, William L Burney and Thomas "Skeeter" Hargis. Skeeter, who would become a mentor and friend to many students from Harrisburg and other places as well, helped Crummel transition into the new college environment.

The first indoor track practice started before daylight at six o'clock on a frosty, foggy morning with a knock on the door by Coach Dawson; but practice was never indoors. Four years would pass in similar fashion. While at State, George participated in others activities which include; ROTC, Glee Club, The Gospel Cavaliers, intramurals and he became a member of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. in 1972.

After graduating in 1976 with a bachelor's degree in education, Crummel returned to Harrisburg, Pa, where during the next 16 years he held several jobs and coaching positions. Crummel also continued to excel at running and earned two national titles at the age of 35. In 1989, he was awarded the Kelly Cup for Outstanding Performance in Keystone State Games.

In 1993, Crummel moved to Winston Salem, N.C. and worked for Winston-Salem Forsyth County schools until he retired in 2014. He attended Wentz Memorial UCC, was a member of the Chamber Choir, Secretary Treasurer and Chairman of the Men's Fellowship.

Crummel is blessed to have four daughters, one son, three grand-daughters and 10 grandsons.

Born in Anawalt, W.Va. in 1952, John L. Davidson, III is the oldest son of the late John L. and Lousinda Davidson. He graduated from Gary High School (Coaldigger), in 1970. Davidson was recruited by West Virginia State to play outside linebacker and after one year, the United States government terminated all college deferments, nationally, and he was drafted for the Vietnam conflict. Following his tour of duty, he returned and completed two summer school sessions and graduated with an associate degree in law enforcement and a bachelor's degree in criminal justice.

After graduating from WVSU, John retired after 39 years of federal law enforcement service as a special agent for the Department of Justice and U.S. Parole Board (Court Services and Offenders Supervision Agency), Washington, D.C. He is currently in private practice specializing in domestic violence, anger management and substance abuse treatment. He also serves as the COO of the Prince Georges Coalition Against Domestic Violence in Prince George's County Maryland and is an adjunct instructor for U.S. Homeland Security.

Davidson has expressed his love for his Alma Mater through his services as President of the WVSU National "W" Club Shenandoah Valley Chapter for eight years and by making gifts of support of the construction of the Monroe Athletic Complex. The John L. Davidson, III Football Office is named in grateful appreciation for his dedicated service and generous support to WVSU yellowjacketnation4life. He is also a charter member of the Bullpen baseball team to ensure that Coach Calvin Bailey's legacy lives at State.

He is a member of the First Baptist Church Glenarden, Security Ministry and is married to Vivette L. Davidson. They are blessed with two wonderful children, John IV and Dreama, and six grandchildren of Tampa, Fla.

Four Year Letterman

Charles Wayne “Steak” Ingram, son of the late Tom and Susie Ingram, was born and reared in McDowell County, W.Va. He is the sixth child of seven born into this union. He graduated from Welch High School in 1970.

Recruited by Coach Art Burris to West Virginia State University in 1970 to play basketball, he became the captain of his freshman team that went undefeated with a 14-0 record which included victory over Marshall University where he averaged 20 points per game. He was a member of the nationally ranked 1973 Yellow Jacket squad. Because of knowledge of the game, leadership ability and maturity during his senior year, he again, was named captain of the team. Ingram graduated in 1974 with a bachelor’s and associate’s degree in criminal justice.

Ingram has given back to the community by being a coach for AAU basketball teams who represented West Virginia. in the nationals twice. He has coached for the Dunbar midget basketball and football teams for 20 years, was president of the Dunbar Football League for many years and is currently a member of the National “W” Club. He is also a member of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc.

Recently retired from Dow Chemical, Ingram and his wife, Darlene, reside in Dunbar, W.Va. He is the proud father of three sons and step-father of two sons.

Ingram is very active in his church, First Baptist, and the community by helping others in any way needed and to this day remains in close contact with his old teammates.

Pro Career

Signed to play Arena Football for the Augusta Stallions 1999

Mario Xavier Lewis, a native of Augusta, Ga, is the third of four children born to Willie and Ella Lewis on Aug. 27, 1970. Lewis and his brother, Morondo, were taught to play sports by their Uncle Michael Allen '88 at an early age. He graduated from T. W. Josey High School where he lettered in football, basketball and track all four years. He credits Rufus Hankerson for starting his college journey by calling Head Coach Otis Moore at WVSU.

While at State, he studied and learned from past greats Keith Franklin, Carlton Jackson and George Howard. Lewis thanks ALL of his teammates especially the QB's Kenneth Grier, Pat Rinard, offensive line as well as DB's Doug Kirkland, Ahmed Witten, Tommy Castleberry and Aaron Cureton for pushing every day in practice to get better; also, Nate, Jeff, and Chuck my receivers, as well as Coach Ivy.

In 1992, Lewis was the Omega Psi Phi athlete of the year. He would like to thank Dr. Charles Byers and Col. Que Stephens for mentoring throughout his college career. Que Stevens Jr. (deceased) will always be remembered in Lewis's heart. Lewis played professional Arena football in 1999. He was featured in Jet magazine in 1992 for breaking the record of 20 WVIAC touchdowns.

He graduated in May 1994 with a bachelor's degree in criminal justice and is a member of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. Lewis is married to Shymeka Lewis.

THOMAS D. ORCUTT

Honorary Inductee

---

Thomas D. Orcutt was born in Charleston, W.Va. in 1949 to George and Ann Orcutt. He attended West Virginia State University in the fall of 1969 after graduating from Stonewall Jackson High School. He has been married to his wife, Toni Marino Orcutt, for the past 46 years. In that time he has owned and operated his start-up company Tom's Plumbing, Inc. He sought ownership of Mullen Plumbing Heating and Cooling 20 years ago and currently operates both companies with his wife, Toni, and son, Tommy.

Orcutt has three children, daughters Mary Lazo (Mike) and Beth Orcutt-Davis (JR), and son Tom, Jr. (Nikki). The joy in his life comes from his large extended family which includes nine grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. He loves spending his time attending their various activities, sports events and just watching them grow into young adults. Tom enjoys being a part of his community and the WVSU family while attending various sports events. He is grateful for all he has attained in life and finds great joy in giving back to his community and state in small ways such as supporting student-athletes at WVSU and at South Charleston High School. He is an active member of the Presidents Circle at WVSU as well as being a member of the Chamber of Commerce for Charleston and South Charleston. Within the community, you will find that he will donate to the smallest cause such as young athletes participating in travel basketball, girls' softball and even soccer. Orcutt has found great Yellow Jacket pride in continuing to contribute to all efforts of expansion within the West Virginia State University community.

LESTER RAINES

Honorary Inductee

Lester Raines is a lifelong resident of the Kanawha Valley and in 2016-2017 will begin his sixth season as assistant coach of the West Virginia State University men's basketball team. Alongside head coach Bryan Poore, Raines has helped successfully guide the men's basketball program through its transition from the former West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (WVIAC) to its current home in the Mountain East Conference (MEC). In addition to his work on the basketball court, Raines has been a leader in fundraising efforts to support Yellow Jacket athletic programs, including leading successful sponsorship drives for the scoreboards and scorer's table in the new D. Stephen and Diane H. Walker Convocation Center. The court inside the Convocation Center bears Raines' name. "I love the enthusiasm, excitement and energy at West Virginia State," Raines says. "I came to WVSU because I wanted to be part of that. I am a very proud member of the State family."

Raines is a long-time booster of athletic programs throughout the region. He was a sponsor of the former WVIAC basketball tournament, as well as a sponsor of youth sports programs throughout the Charleston area. Prior to joining the coaching staff at WVSU, Raines spent 14 years as an assistant to coaches Jason Gee and Greg White with the University of Charleston men's basketball team. He is a member of the University of Charleston's Athletic Hall of Fame.

Raines graduated from the former Charleston High School in 1973, from West Virginia University with a degree in Chemistry in 1977, and from the West Virginia University School of Dentistry in 1981. He and his wife, Tonya, live in the Charleston areas with their daughter, Alexandria.

Track

WVIAC Conference All-Conference Selection
1969-1970

WVIAC Conference Track Champs 1969

WVIAC Conference Track Champs 1970

Donald Lee Riley was the oldest of eight children born to the late James Riley and Josephine (Riley) Joyce in Northfork, W.Va. Before coming to State, he ran track and played football for Elkhorn High School for Coach James Hairston. Riley turned down State to attend Bluefield State College, but two years later came to WVSU to continue his studies in math.

While at State, Riley played in the ROTC Band; ROTC Company Commander; was named among Who's Who Among Students in Colleges and Universities; and Who's Who among Fraternities and Sororities. He also worked as a math tutor under Professor Andrew Aheart and was treasurer of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in math with minors in physics and English. He entered the U. S. Army as a 2nd Lieutenant and left as a Major.

On the field, he was asked to come out for the track team by new coach Buck Dawson who was very creative in his training and preparation of his team. Coach Dawson convinced Riley to run the one event that he did not want to run. He gave him the baton at the start of the Mile Relay during the first conference meet in 1969. The Mile Relay was unbeatable. WVSU won the WVIAC Championship with ease with Riley being the lead-off for his team. State repeated in 1970 with Riley as the anchor. Coach Dawson once put him in four events (100, 220, 4x100 Mile Relay) to get points against Concord College. Riley scored 36 points to Concord's 18 points. He held the school record in the 440 for a short time.

Riley is the father of three sons: Don, Jr., J.R., and Warren; one daughter: Kristina; five grandchildren: Dejuantae, Nino, Katie, Caitlynn, Veronica and one great-grandchild; six sisters: Barbara, Phyllis, Aletto,Carolynn, Paula, Deborah and one brother, David.

Charles Smith was born on Oct. 24, 1974, in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. to the late Annie "Ruth" Mallard and Charles Smith, the youngest of six siblings. He graduated from Fort Lauderdale High School in 1993. He was initially recruited by Rich Rodriguez to serve as a member of the football team at Glenville State College but chose to play football at West Virginia State University in the spring of 1994.

Because of being a transfer student, Smith sat out for a year. After the probationary period, immediately Smith was classified as a starter at middle linebacker, starting all 10 games and was named to the second team All WVIAC. As a junior, Smith accomplished a season only few can imagine. He was named to the Pittsburgh Gazette All-American Team, Daktronics All-American Team and First Team Conference as well as Defensive Player of the Year.

Smith graduated from West Virginia State University earning a bachelor's degree in criminal justice. Later, he earned his master's degree in education. Currently, Smith works for the Shelby County Schools as a special education teacher. He serves as the head wrestling coach and assistant football coach at Memphis East High School. # THOMAS Health System

The Thomas Promise

The Mission at Thomas Memorial Hospital is to be the first choice for those in need of health care by providing the highest quality of service through a team of valued, caring and highly skilled employees and physicians in a state of the art facility. We achieve this by living the Values of...

Customer Service

Customer Service at Thomas means consistently meeting or, at every opportunity, exceeding the expectations of patients and others.

Quality

Quality at Thomas means consistently meeting or exceeding the health care needs of our patients. Quality is essential, cannot be delegated, and impacts everything throughout our organization.

Teamwork

Teamwork at Thomas means every employee, physician, and volunteer continuously works together toward the common goal of providing the highest quality of service.

Concern for People

Concern for people means that we at Thomas possess and display concern for the dignity, self-worth, well-being and contributions of all. By practicing this value, we recognize the importance that each of us plays in providing the highest quality of service.

Integrity

Integrity at Thomas is doing what is right by pursuing a high standard of conduct and honesty in all situations.

*Through the hills and valleys of life,
we can help ease the financial strife.*

Supporting our athletes.
Sharing our knowledge.
It's how we all win.

BB&T encourages the pursuit of knowledge on and off the field. When students participate in sports, they learn important life skills, including the benefits of teamwork and the power of preparation. That's why BB&T is proud to sponsor youth athletic programs across our community, and is committed to sharing more than 140 years of financial knowledge with our clients and neighbors. At BB&T, we're here to help make every goal achievable. BBT.com
